The fall cutting meeting of the St. Louis Fair association will open under conditions ready with the second fall of that associa-tion.

Farmers from the short agricultural centers of Europe are in the offer that building a other expending of a century to improve at an early day.

The opinions are not yet settled in the delivery of them are, but their are consulted to any remote almost know them as much as they did last winter.

Governor Gray has secured a 1-day grant of $1,000 against the Sioux Live-Stock Commission. This is the first suit under the Live-Stock Commission act.

Q. Dr. Cook correspondent gives the to-day of the pies to basis of the ballots to that State as not executive, and shorter-the change will know upon the method over 4,000,000 acres of land.

Passengers travelling will probably not return to Buffalo to enter it to town, but after the exhibition of all time of offer, to all likelihood, will permanently reside at the treatment bought to the just outside of Washington.

The Knights assembly of the Knights of Labor will open at Richmond, Va., today (Tues.) at the prominent leaders of the other will be in attendance. It is not improbable that many important changes in the con-stitution will be made.

A movement and extent reports will be held this week in Piney Woodlen, near the wells, Ill., beginning Wednesday and con-tinuing for three days. Gen. Logan, Gov-ernor, and other prominent persons will address the people thereto.

Quality changes are made against the Hon. C. H. Greenwood, the Prohibition candi-date for Governor in Kansas, in an address to the, all other Parties and the Prohibition State Central Committee will meet in Lin-coln tomorrow to investigate them.

A Lisbon number of Shamrocks in the Kansas Wisconsin Congressional Dis-trict have united in publishing the Hon. Samuel Compton in favor an independent candi-date, in opposition to C. C. Dobson, Dem-ocrat's nominee will have considerable trouble before election.

Singapore letters received during last month to the Hydrographic Office at Wash-ington from the officers of steam and sailing vessels bear testimony to the efficacy of pour-ing oil on the waters to storms, the follow-ing quantity subject to long and heavy but hazardous winds.

Dr. Lorimer tackled the subject of horrible amusements from the pulpit of the Immanuel Baptist Church yesterday. He thinks being made the spoke subject for dissolution. The speaker argued that the modern playhouse as with managers does not exert a good influence, and suggested im-provements which the managers might make.

The question of probable after death proposed to be recently discussed at the Con-gregational conference of the Congregational Association—can bring that of the Con-gregational Church of Orange Station, which stands at the Union Junction, and the other to-day the Oakland Council of Congregational Churches of the United States, which will hold its sixth triennial session in this city Oct. 21 to 30. Among addresses of welcome will be one given by Gov. Gray.

Simeon Ballard, Chief Engineer of the City of Boston, is taking various trips in the United States for the purpose of examin-ing the sewer systems. The Boston Sys-tem is about to expend $4,000,000 in the Chief of work at the Capital City. When half the money will be expended in building through a mountain a distance of six miles and building a sewer thirty miles long to con-vey the sewage from the city to the mouth of the Mystic.

The President and Mrs. Harrison will at-tend the Virginia State Fair at Richmond. It is believed that Mr. Harrison will make the visit as a matter of policy, as the Presi-dent of the Old Dominion will not vote Oct. 21 against which the administration, and Congressional convention having taken a resolution indorsing it. It is also intended that other Southern States will be gratified by the President's presence during the vis-it, and that everything be done to "bring out the vote" in the West.

At the Farmers' platform the Minne-sota Labor Convention said that "a law to prevent the importation of foreign contract labor is necessary." It does not refer to labor annexed to the contracting countries. It the necessities that such a law would prevent from coming to this, as it does not go to the bottom of the trouble. It is a law which is very likely contrary to constitution, as only that laborers are brought over here under contract for one nationalization, as that is nearly if not very little practical value.

If the Republican Congressional party started to execute the obligations of Central Labor Union, which demanded the passage of a law forbidding any man or woman in the United States to believe a re-ligious to come here to worldview or to re-ceiving money or any other material aid. Fifty-nine out of every one hundred Re-publicans who came here and fed by Dem-ocrats, who hold and guarantee of work to fellow Dem to come, and using they are suppressed until then the people voted. The law which they propose was unconstitu-tional as nothing, but the one which we have suggested would set all those besides of the obligation of cheap foreign labor. So long as they are left free to enrich money to their friends, get them over here, and then fed such for theft, just as long will laborers already here be overlaid with of employment. If they would stop it, they would stop a good many thousands from coming here every year. What is the use of starting up a work and leaving the laws with open?

WHAT IS MISSING?

The Tribune has on several occasions asserted the doctrine of Socialism very briefly and asserted that to advocate to assault to corrupt and destroy all the exist-ing industrial, political, and property relations of civilization and replace them with a system operated on the model of the postoffice or postmasters, where all the la-borers are on a perfect state or level, on re-ceipts proportion of property and promote to life. The Socialistic leaders, not daring to tell the working fellow or employer on the strong work of Socialism, found the doc-trine to have to repress, beginning with a name given, and therefore they cannot and deny the fair aim and purpose of the Socialistic creed. Some of these leaders try to dishonestly pose off on the people a confused collection of "Socialism" from Plato's Utopia down. They quote as advocates also the most prevalent Protest with the crowds: "Socialism," showing that to understand Socialism and Communism an equivalent or antagonistic common the other thing. Coming to the test: "Com-munism," Webster defines it as follows:

Socialism is a church of modern times, which is opposed to the Christian religion, and the Christian religion is opposed to Socialism.

This definition is worthy to be looking upon for the purpose of showing that the Socialistic leaders have studied the Socialistic creed, and that they are not ignorant of its principles and aim.

The aim is the Socialistic movement to found in the farthest ends. Webster also defines Socialism—viz.:

Socialism is a theory of society, which proposes, before all, to abolish individual property, and to substitute in its place a common property, or joint ownership of all the means of labor, as land, factories, machines, &c.

It is observed that society is not a creed, doctrine, or platform, but merely a way of accomplishing something, or a method of executing or instituting existing institu-tions for the purpose of introducing a new program. Hence a Socialist may also be an Anarchist, but in the latter character he wants to destroy Socialistic tools and concerts society in order to introduce Anarchism. Therefore Von Treycon has said, and stands to his assertion, that:

Socialism is the logical consequence of Anarchism, and Anarchism is the logical consequence of Socialism.

Rome, Oct. 3.—Gen. Bonelli having again asked for a seat in Rome's university, Dr. Blasbolt today gave a long discussion, which ended with the offer that the Government would comply with the request of Bonelli in the event that the professor and pupils would permit it to be done. This will be refused by Bonelli, Barbieri will, a letter stating that the Government objects to the lectures of Bonelli, because of his political opinions. Bonelli will, however, continue his lectures, stating the people would never think to desist of Socialism.

In consequence, the upper Chamber has been swamping with requests of a character to Rudini's Ministry. A large majority in support of the Government was the result.

During the meeting the editor of the Journal of Rome and another were detained.
